

FORGIVENESS IS MORE POWERFUL THAN SIN

	PERSONAL FORGIVENESS (forgiveness of the penalty for sins)	RELATIONAL FORGIVENESS (forgiveness of the consequences of sins)
FIRST PATH: Receiving God's forgiveness	We receive God's forgiveness of our sins by believing that Jesus has paid the penalty for them and that God has already forgiven us	God forgives (sends away by changing) the future consequences of our sins when we repent
SECOND PATH: Forgiving other people	We forgive other people by believing that Jesus has paid the penalty for them and that God has already forgiven them	We forgive (send away by changing) the future consequences of someone's sin when they repent
THIRD PATH: Asking people to forgive us	We ask others to forgive us of the penalty for our sins by helping them to focus on the death of Jesus as the payment for that sin	We ask the people we have sinned against to forgive (send away by changing) the future consequences of our sins as we demonstrate true repentance
